CROWN CRAFTS BOARD APPROVES EARLY TERMINATION OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN

Gonzales, Louisiana — Crown Crafts, Inc. (the “Company”) (NASDAQ-CM: CRWS) announced today that its Board of Directors has voted unanimously to terminate the Company’s shareholder rights plan. The Board’s action will accelerate the expiration of the plan, which had been set to expire on March 31, 2014.

“The Company’s Board of Directors has always taken seriously its fiduciary duties to protect the long-term interests of all shareholders. So, in April 2009, when the Company’s shares were trading at approximately $1.90 per share and macroeconomic conditions were extremely volatile, the Board determined that action was appropriate to protect its shareholders. The Board extended the shareholder rights plan at that time with the full knowledge that it would regularly evaluate the plan as the Company’s valuation and the broader markets recovered,” said E. Randall Chestnut, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. “With the current price at $4.00 per share as of the close of trading on July 26, 2010 and an aggressive five-year growth strategy in place to fully leverage the various growth opportunities becoming available in today’s more stable marketplace, the Board, in its diligent effort to act according to the best interests of all shareholders, has decided that this plan is no longer necessary.”

“The Board takes great pride in its track record of responsibly serving the best interests of Crown Crafts shareholders, as well as its commitment to strong corporate governance policies and practices,” said Zenon S. Nie, the Company’s independent Lead Director. “Today’s action is further evidence of the Board’s vigilant efforts to ensure the long-term value of Crown Crafts for all of its shareholders.”
